

Recent progress on graphene and van der Waals heterostructures

---

Andre Geim

University of Manchester
UK

---

I will briefly overview our most recent work on graphene and van der Waals heterostructures. This will include such topics as behavior of a highly viscous electron liquid in graphene, new quantum oscillations occurring well above room temperature in moderate magnetic fields and some others.