

---

Andre Geim

University of Manchester, UK

---

Recent progress on van der Waals heterostructures

I will overview our recent work on van der Waals heterostructure devices. My talk will include such topics as a highly viscous flow of electrons in graphene, a fundamentally new type of quantum oscillations that do not rely on Landau quantization and persist well above room temperature, and some other new observations.